

ART &
ABOUT
SYDNEY'S CONTESTED LANDSCAPES

---

What is Food (Bread) Really Worth?

September 24 & 25
8am – 8pm

What is a loaf of bread worth to you? Over two days, performance artist Robert Guth bakes loaves, offering them to passers-by in exchange for items they consider of equivalent value. He documents the exchanges and sells them on eBay.

---

Humanising the Landscape

September 26
5.30pm – 6.30pm

Artist Leo Robba explores the development of the artist's garden tradition as well as the English landscape garden, and its impact on Australian landscape painting.

---

Healthy Cities

September 26
6.30pm – 7.30pm

Professor Tony Capon discusses issues such as climate change, population growth and healthy sustainable cities.

---

Food Security

September 27
7pm – 7.45pm

Join Associate Professor Jane Dixon in a thought-provoking discussion exploring whether climate change could make Australia a food-poor country.

Above right
Gouldian Finch (detail)
Jane Gillings

Above left
Liquid Assets, 2010 (detail)
Oil on canvas
Joanna Braithwaite

---

The Face of Urban Sydney

September 28
7pm – 7.45pm

Artist and musician Peter O'Doherty will talk about painting the town red, blue or even green.

---

Agriculture

September 29
6pm – 6.45pm

Associate Professor in Design at University of Western Sydney, Dr. Jonathon Allen, will explore the topic "Agriculture: the contest for land and water resources in Sydney's west".